

Hal Ferguson

Board Member, NCCVM, 2018

Hal enlisted in the US Navy at the age of 17 as an Electronics Technician. Home ported out of San Diego, he served two tours on surface combatants along the Western Pacific Rim. Honorably discharged in 1984, Hal pursued a degree in Computer Science at Cal State Fullerton. Through a 25-year career in Defense, Hal has held posts in Engineering Services, Data and Project Management at Hughes Aircraft, Teledyne, Magnetek, Power Systems Group, and L-3 Communications. Hailing from Petaluma, Hal spent a good deal of time along the Mendonoma Coast in 1974-76 as unskilled teenage labor for a neighbor's general contracting and remodeling business, and relocated back to the Point Arena area in 2011.
