

Jim Iversen

Board Member

Veteran of the Army having served as an infantryman with the Americal Division in Viet Nam. He has been a Gualala resident since 1950. He is now retired after forty eight years as an electrician, having owned his contracting business for the last twenty-four years. Jim and his wife Rosemary currently own the local Coldwell Banker Office. He became an NCCVM board member in early 2020.